Colt M4 Carbine .22 Tactical Rimfire

Based on the legendary original Colt M4, this .22 Long Rifle carbine sports German quality and craftsmanship.

This "Full Metal Body" Colt M4 looks and feels like an actual M4, creating one of the most exciting .22 caliber firearms available. Engineered from the ground up as a dedicated .22 caliber rimfire, this AR style Colt features a 16.2 inch barrel, multi-positional collapsible stock, flat-top receiver with a detachable carry handle, CAR hand guards, flash hider, A2 pistol grip and 30 round magazine.

This tactical .22 rifle is great for shooters of all ages from the youngster that wants to shoot an AR just like mom or dad's to the experienced shooter looking for an in expensive alternative for plinking, target shooting or small game hunting with their favorite style carbine.

UMAREX, the parent company of Walther Firearms is Europe's largest importer of air rifles. It is at the same time the world's largest maker of replicas. Famous makers such as Smith & Wesson, Colt, Beretta, FN Browning, Magnum Research Inc., and Walther have awarded UMAREX licenses to construct tear-gas, signal guns, and CO2 airguns. They have now expanded into the true firearms market with the introduction of this fine Colt M4.
